DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

I. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 13 recites a data transmission system with a structure as defined in the specification (pages 6-14) including at least one personal computer; and a multi-access system including or coupled to a communication device, the multi-access system coupled to the personal computer through a Bluetooth connection; wherein data packets are transmitted between the personal computer and the communication device through the Bluetooth connection, wherein the data packets are sent from the communication device for transmission via an air interface to the Internet, wherein the multi-access system comprises: a system for receiving data packets from a plurality of computers; a packet call connection system for interfacing with one or more radio communication terminals; and a multi-access routing system for routing data packets from a multimedia system to the radio communication terminals according to a slot assignment method, and wherein the slot assignment method comprises: performing a one-on-one assignment for mapping each of the computers to a respective one of the radio communication terminals; and a common sharing method for allowing each computer to share the plurality of radio communication terminals for transmitting data packets.

The prior art teaches a data transmission system including at least one personal computer; and a multi-access system including or coupled to a communication device, the multi-access system coupled to the personal computer through a Bluetooth connection; wherein data packets are transmitted between the personal computer and the communication device through the

Art Unit: 2617

Bluetooth connection, wherein the data packets are sent from the communication device for transmission via an air interface to the Internet.

However, applicant's independent claim 13 comprises a particular structure, as recited above, that allows for a multi-access system comprising: a system for receiving data packets from a plurality of computers; a packet call connection system for interfacing with one or more radio communication terminals; and a multi-access routing system for routing data packets from a multimedia system to the radio communication terminals according to a slot assignment method, and wherein the slot assignment method comprises: performing a one-on-one assignment for mapping each of the computers to a respective one of the radio communication terminals; and a common sharing method for allowing each computer to share the plurality of radio communication terminals for transmitting data packets.

This is neither taught nor suggested by the prior art.

Claims 14-18 are allowable based on their dependence on independent claim 13.

Claim 19 recites a data transmission system with a structure as defined in the specification (pages 6-14) including at least one personal computer; and a multi-access system including or coupled to a communication device, the multi-access system coupled to the personal computer through a Bluetooth connection; wherein data packets are transmitted between the personal computer and the communication device through the Bluetooth connection, wherein the data packets are sent from the communication device for transmission via an air interface to the Internet, and wherein the multi-access system comprises: a system for receiving data packets from a plurality of computers; a packet-call connection system for interfacing with one or more radio communication terminals; and a multi-access routing system for routing data packets from a multimedia system to the radio communication terminals according to a slot assignment methods and wherein the receiving system comprises: a plurality of physical data link control circuits provided in one-to-one correspondence with the plurality of computer, each of said physical data link control circuits controlling a corresponding physical data link; a TCP/IP control circuit to perform a TCP/IP protocol function on data packets transmitted from the plurality, of physical data link control circuits; a command/response control circuit for performing/responding to a command of the computers transmitted from the TCP/IP control circuit; and a data control circuit for sorting and buffering data transmitted from the TCP/IP control circuit.

The prior art teaches a data transmission system including at least one personal computer; and a multi-access system including or coupled to a communication device, the multi-access system coupled to the personal computer through a Bluetooth connection; wherein data packets are transmitted between the personal computer and the communication device through the Bluetooth connection, wherein the data packets are sent from the communication device for transmission via an air interface to the Internet.

However, applicant's independent claim 19 comprises a particular structure, as recited above, that allows for a multi-access system comprising: a system for receiving data packets from a plurality of computers; a packet-call connection system for interfacing with one or more radio communication terminals; and a multi-access routing system for routing data packets from a multimedia system to the radio communication terminals according to a slot assignment methods and wherein the receiving system comprises: a plurality of physical data link control circuits provided in one-to-one correspondence with the plurality of computer, each of said physical data link control circuits controlling a corresponding physical data link; a TCP/IP control circuit to perform a TCP/IP protocol function on data packets transmitted from the plurality, of physical data link control circuits; a command/response control circuit for performing/responding to a command of the computers transmitted from the TCP/IP control circuit; and a data control circuit for sorting and buffering data transmitted from the TCP/IP control circuit.

This is neither taught nor suggested by the prior art.

Claim 20 is allowable based on their dependence on independent claim 19.

Claim 23 recites a data transmission system with a structure as defined in the specification (pages 6-14) including at least one personal computer; and a multi-access system including or coupled to a communication device, the multi-access system coupled to the personal computer through a Bluetooth connection; wherein data packets are transmitted between the personal computer and the communication device through the Bluetooth connection, wherein the data packets are sent from the communication device for transmission via an air interface to the Internet, wherein the multi-access system comprises: a system for receiving data packets from a plurality of computers; a packet call connection system for interfacing with one or more radio communication terminals; and a multi-access routing system for routing data packets from a multimedia system to the radio communication terminals according to a slot assignment method, and wherein the multi-access routing system: sets a slot assignment method according to a command of at least one of the computers, assigns a slot to said one of the computers according to the set slot assignment method, and routes data packets associated with a same call between said one of the computers and multiple ones the radio communication terminals based on said a same destination IP address and a same data link address associated with each of the packets.

The prior art teaches a data transmission system including at least one personal computer; and a multi-access system including or coupled to a communication device, the multi-access system coupled to the personal computer through a Bluetooth connection; wherein data packets are transmitted between the personal computer and the communication device through the Bluetooth connection, wherein the data packets are sent from the communication device for transmission via an air interface to the Internet.

However, applicant's independent claim 23 comprises a particular structure, as recited above, that allows for a multi-access system comprising: a system for receiving data packets from a plurality of computers; a packet call connection system for interfacing with one or more radio communication terminals; and a multi-access routing system for routing data packets from a multimedia system to the radio communication terminals according to a slot assignment method, and wherein the multi-access routing system: sets a slot assignment method according to a command of at least one of the computers, assigns a slot to said one of the computers according to the set slot assignment method, and routes data packets associated with a same call between said one of the computers and multiple ones the radio communication terminals based on said a same destination IP address and a same data link address associated with each of the packets.

This is neither taught nor suggested by the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Art Unit: 2617
